

SHORT FILMS PROGRAMME 2020

Unlike previous seasons there will not be a break during this short films programme, so that we can maintain social distancing.

The Arrival

Dir: Daniel Montanorini UK 2016 4m 59s

A woman waiting for her lover in a café thinks about what to tell him about the fact that she is pregnant.

Dig Your Own Grave

Dir: Kirk Larson USA 2019 13m 47s

A man in trouble with gangsters is taken to the desert and ordered at gunpoint to dig his own grave. However this isn't so easy, and results in some black comedy.

A Fox and a Mouse

Dir: Camille Chaix et al France 2015 Animation 6m 20s

A fox and a mouse beautifully animated in a snowy landscape. This is a simple story, but watch it for the amazing artwork.

The Driver is Red

Dir: Randall Christopher USA 2017 Line Animation 14m

In 1960 a secret agent searches for a mysterious man in Argentina. Based on real people and events.

The Neighbour's Window

Dir: Marshall Curry USA 2019 20m 33s

A stressed couple with children watch their uninhibited neighbours. Winner of 2020 Oscar for live action short film.

Uno

Dir: Javier Marco Spain 2017 10m 18s

Fishermen find a phone floating in a sealed bag – then the phone rings. A comment on refugees and those that they leave behind.

Hair Love

Dir: Matthew Cherry USA 2019 Animation 6m 47s

An African American girl has trouble with her unruly hair. Dad tries to help. This has a good and unexpected ending. Oscar winner for short animation 2020.

Brotherhood

Dir: Meryam Joobeur Tunisia 2019 25m

The son of a poor herding family returns after years away, bringing a pregnant wife – where has he been, and what does it mean for the family?

Garden Party

Dir: Florian Babikian et al France 2017 Animation 7m

A dark comedy where frogs and toads invade an empty house and gradually unravel for us what happened there. Brilliant animation.

Brain Wave

Dir: Jake Fried USA Animation 1m

A very fast series of faces in 1,440 drawings using just line and white-out to rework a single drawing.

Red Handed

Dir: Edward Andrews UK 2016 7m 30s

A dark crime comedy as a jogger comes across a body in the woods.

Total 118 minutes